

Internship Position

HQ Capital is a leading global independent alternative investment manager. We combine investment expertise in private equity and real estate on a single platform and have been active in global private equity and in U.S. real estate since 1989.

Our 150+ employees manage $11.6 billion in total private equity and real estate assets from offices in Frankfurt, New York, Seattle, Dallas, Washington, D.C., London, Hong Kong, Shanghai, Seoul and Tokyo.

For our private equity funds business in Bad Homburg (next to Frankfurt) we are looking for Interns on an ongoing basis to support our European investment team preferably for a duration of 3 months or longer.

Core Responsibilities:

- Working with the investment team in analyzing leading European private equity fund managers, their track record as well as current portfolio companies
- Working with the team in preparing investment proposals and marketing presentations
- Support with regard to monitoring and portfolio management
- Research on economic data and private equity industry related information

Qualifications:

- Top education in economics, finance or similar business related studies
- Previous experience (min. of 3 months) in international private equity investing and/or M&A
- Motivated self-starters with entrepreneurial drive
- Ability to work effectively and autonomously within a very demanding environment with exposure to senior management
- Strong analytical skills, sound judgment, and attention to detail
- German and English language required, another European language is a plus
- Strong Microsoft Excel and PowerPoint skills and proficiency in other Microsoft Office applications

If you are interested in working in a growing, dynamic and well established team operating as part of a global organization, we would like to hear from you. Please forward your application, preferably by e-mail, to the following address, stating the earliest date that you could start:

HQ Capital (Deutschland) GmbH

Dara Mendelson

Harald Quandt Haus

Am Pilgerrain 17

61352 Bad Homburg, Germany

careers@hqcapital.com